Anti-Ragging Committee

This committee has been established to eliminate ragging completely and maintain a campus free from such evil practices. These include physical assault, threats, violating the dignity of students, exposing them to ridicule, verbal abuse, and forcing them to do things they wouldn't otherwise do. The Anti-Ragging Committee serves as a specialized Unit within the College, committed to fostering a safe, respectful, and harmonious atmosphere for all students. Its primary function is to combat ragging activities effectively and to address any complaints associated with these incidents, if any.
