Discussion and Decisions from the Meeting

The following key points were discussed and finalized during the meeting:

1. Confirmation of Previous Meeting Minutes

The IQAC Chairperson read the minutes from the meeting held on June 1, 2024. All members unanimously approved them as accurate.

2. Preparation & submission of AQAR 2023-24

IQAC Coordinator announced that Annual Quality Assurance Report for the A.Y. 2023-24 has to be prepared, and all the criterion heads have updated the final corrections.

3. Departmental Certificate Courses

The IQAC Coordinator emphasized the requirement for each department to offer a certificate course and elaborated on its importance.

4. Implementation of NEP in UG Programs

The Chief Coordinator and IQAC members discussed the changes in undergraduate programs under the National Education Policy (NEP). Starting this year, lecture durations will be one hour. Certain subjects will carry two credits, while others will have four. New subjects such as Indian Knowledge System (IKS), Cultural Activities, and Indian Constitution have been introduced across all programs. The HODs of the Humanities and Chemistry departments stated that they have adopted Scheme III for NEP subject implementation, while all other programs have opted for Scheme I.

5. Planning an International Conference

the Principal Dr. R. N. Nadar Sir, announced the organization of an international conference on "Sustainable Development: A Collaborative Approach through Humanities, Commerce, and Science." The conference will follow a hybrid format, allowing participants to present their papers both online and offline. Responsibilities were assigned to staff members to ensure the smooth execution of the event.

6. Research Initiatives

Dr. Amrita Singh shared that students from the Chemistry department have developed a new invention, "Degradable Grass Paper." This project will be presented at the Aavishkar Competition at Mumbai University.

7. To discuss any other matter with the permission of the chair.

No additional points were raised for discussion.

The meeting concluded with a vote of thanks and the national anthem at 12:30 PM.
